

Welcome to Anomakit

(Who we are, what we do, why you should work with us...)

Anomakit Language Services (a trading name of VilarStone Cultural Leisure Ltd) was founded in 2007 by Frederic Vilar and Jeanette Stone. Anomakit was their original freelance name on 3 prestigious freelance websites; Codeur, Freelancer and Elance. They originally specialised in providing translation, proofreading and copywriting services in their native languages; French and English.

Since then, their reputation has grown for efficient and friendly service at a reasonable price in the language services sector. Due to demand from existing clients other translators providing different language services have been welcomed to form a dedicated team of language specialists offering translation, proofreading and writing services by experienced and professional native speakers. Read more about the Anomakit Team Members here.

Anomakit is different to the average language services company that can be found on the Internet. The emphasis is placed primarily on quality work at reasonable prices by native, experienced translators/writers; we do not use translation software. The outsourcing and exploitation of translators and writers that is practised by many other online companies is not condoned by Anomakit. Team members are paid good rates so ensuring quality work, customer service and loyalty. These three qualities are highly prized by the Anomakit founders. Our prices are reasonable due to the fact that the company offices are in Bulgaria and team members work on a freelance basis from their home countries thereby reducing overheads. Communications take place for the most part through the Internet (generally by Skype or email) which again helps in keeping costs to a minimum, the benefits of which can be passed on to our clients.

Although specialising in multilingual website translation we have successfully tackled projects such as the translation of WWI postcards, writing eBooks, translating business plans, proofreading language course documentation, translating real estate and commercial documents, translating poetry, writing articles on a variety of subjects, translating subtitles for videos, translating fitness session transcripts, translating mobile applications, proofreading web content and translating song lyrics. All work is of course meticulously proofread before delivery (at no extra cost to the client) to ensure client satisfaction; over 70% of our work is from regular clients, some of whom we have worked with for years. Unlike many other translation companies the Anomakit Team will give the same service and dedication to every project, whether it be a 200 word CV translation or a 20,000 word website translation in 5 different languages. We can also work in a variety of formats including excel, word, PHP, html and even graphics. We understand that every project is unique and important to the client and we take great pleasure in helping the client achieve their objective through the use of our language services. As we are in contact with members and clients throughout the world we are also available 18/24, 7/7 so you no longer have to panic on Friday night for the delivery of that important document on Monday morning – we are here for you! Tell us what you need and enjoy your weekend!

We enjoy our work and would welcome the opportunity to discuss your requirements – contact us today by email, Skype or live chat. We look forward to helping you with your project.
